JACKSON HOLE OVERVIEW

Jackson vs. Jackson Hole

Jackson or Jackson Hole? This is the question that your family and friends who do not live in the area will be asking. The answer is both. Jackson Hole is a valley that comprises the following communities: Jackson, Wilson, Teton Village, Kelly, Moose, and Moran. If you are moving to any one of these communities then, yes, you will be living in Jackson Hole. The main difference is in the postal system. Each community has its own Post Office.

Our Backyard

Jackson Hole encompasses Grand Teton National Park (est. 1929) and is just south of Yellowstone National Park (est. 1872). The establishment of these parks has brought many adventurous visitors to the region who spread the word. As a resident, you quickly learn that you share your home with over 3,000,000 visitors from all over the world in the summers. Winter visitation is also high, but not as extreme, as we average around 500,000 visitors.

The Grand Scheme of Things

Jackson Hole is surrounded by stunning mountain ranges including the Teton, Gros Ventre, Absaroka and Snake River Ranges. The Grand Teton is the region's highest peak at 13,766 feet above sea level. When Teddy Roosevelt first laid eyes on the Teton Range, he said they "are what mountains are supposed to look like."

Your New Neighbors

Native Americans, fur trappers, cattle ranchers, cowboys, movie stars, and tycoons have each played their parts in Jackson Hole's past. Many unique characters call Jackson Hole home and everyone has a special connection to the outdoors.

The Census Bureau released an estimate of 22,268 people living in Teton County in 2013. Jackson Hole has a friendly, small town feel and laidback western attitude.

Artful Living

Enjoying outdoor activities is only part of the story when living in Teton County. With the Center for the Arts, Grand Teton Music Festival, the National Museum of Wildlife Art, the Art Association, Jackson Hole Historical Society and Museum and over thirty art galleries, Jackson is also a premier cultural center. For more information, visit www.jacksonholegalleries.com

History and Development

Before 1800, Jackson Hole was home to Native Americans who spent summer months hunting the abundant wildlife. In the early 1800s the Lewis and Clark Corps of Discovery began exploring the mountain west. John Colter, one of the members of the expedition, set out on his own to scout for a fur trading company. The tales he told about northwestern Wyoming seemed unbelievable, but many famous trappers followed Colter's lead. Jim Bridger, Jedediah Smith, William Sublette and David Jackson were some of Colter's contemporaries and their names were given to many local landmarks. It was David Jackson who gave his name to the valley. For the mountain men a "hole" indicated a high valley that was surrounded by mountains and so the valley south of Yellowstone became known as "Jackson's Hole." Later it was shortened to "Jackson Hole." French Canadian trappers named the three prominent peaks of the area in a less traditional fashion, "Les Trois Tetons." "The Three Breasts" became known as the Grand Teton, Middle Teton, and South Teton.

JACKSON HOLE TRADITIONS

The Jackson Hole Chamber of Commerce holds a number of special events throughout the year that bring community members and visitors together to enjoy the unique culture of Jackson Hole.

Jackson Hole WinterFest

WinterFest is an eleven-day festival that features events such as the Shriner's All American Cutter Races, special winter performances from Grand Teton Music Festival, and many others. Community organizations join together to present a series of events that delights winter enthusiasts who love to be out in the snow as well as those who prefer to spend their time beside a crackling hearth.

ElkFest

ElkFest is a weekend of activities built around the world famous Jackson Hole Boy Scout Elk Antler Auction. This is an exciting time for celebrating nature, outdoor skills, hunting, and ecological education and awareness. Every spring, thousands of elk wintering on the National Elk Refuge shed their antlers before they migrate to their summer range. The Boy Scouts assist the Refuge with harvesting the shed antlers and auction them to bidders from around the world who use the sheds to make furniture, wall decorations, and jewelry. Seventy-five percent of auction proceeds go to habitat improvement projects on the Refuge and the remaining 25% is donated to the Jackson Hole Boy Scouts. www.elkfest.org/auction.htm

This annual event, held each year on the weekend before Memorial Day, includes the Howdy Pardner's High Noon Chili Cook-Off, and kick-offs of a Mountain Man Rendezvous and Antler Rendezvous.

Old West Days

Celebrating the Heritage of the West! Jackson Hole has long been referred to as "The Last of the Old West," and with the community's rich history, it's no wonder Old West Days is a favorite among visitors and locals alike. Visitors from all over the country come to delight in the live music, theatrical entertainment, arts and crafts, delicious food, rodeo events, and much, much more.

Memorial Day Weekend

Fourth of July

The day is historically filled with family-friendly activities, including a pancake breakfast, Howdy Pardner's Fourth of July parade, Grand Teton Music Festival's "Music in the Hole," and world-class fireworks displays at the base of Snow King Mountain and in Teton Village!

Second and third week in September

Jackson Hole Fall Arts Festival

The Jackson Hole Fall Arts Festival is widely recognized as one of the premier cultural events in the Rocky Mountain West. Thousands of art enthusiasts are drawn each year to experience the diverse artwork and breathtaking natural surroundings that make Jackson Hole a leading cultural center. Visitors will appreciate the works of nationally and internationally acclaimed artists along with an exceptional array of events featuring music, cuisine, and wine. More than fifty events round out our eleven-day festival.

Jackson Hole Marathon

The Jackson Hole Marathon is a must-do for runners looking for a destination experience with stunning mountain vistas. The Marathon course will start near the Town Square in the historic town of Jackson Hole, wind through neighborhoods within the town, and then utilize the community pathway system to bring participants to the finish line in Teton Village, home of the iconic Jackson Hole Mountain Resort. Runners and their support teams enjoy the variety of health and wellness experiences offered by many businesses and nonprofit organizations – including yoga studios, healthful cuisine, tranquil spas, and more!

Trick or Treat on Town Square

The Jackson Hole Chamber of Commerce is pleased to host Trick or Treat on Town Square each year on Halloween. The event is traditionally held from 3:00-5:30pm with the costume contest at 4:30pm in the center of Town Square. The costume contest has prizes for different age categories -- grown-ups are included! Participating Town Square merchants and other businesses and organizations are vital to this community tradition.

Town Square Lighting

Jackson Hole shops prepare for the holidays with sparkling lights, festive garlands, and beautiful window displays. The finishing touch is the lighting of Town Square! The annual Town Square Lighting Ceremony takes place the day after Thanksgiving from 5:00-7:00pm. This favorite holiday event features arrival of Santa Claus along with cookies, carols, and hot cocoa!

Santa on the Square

Visiting Santa on the Jackson Town Square has become a tradition for many local families and holiday visitors. Town Square dresses for the occasion with thousands of sparkling lights illuminating the famous elk antler arches and towering trees. Santa listens to holiday wishes at the Stage Stop building near the southwest entrance to the Town Square.

The Jackson Hole Chamber of Commerce Green Team

As a resident of Jackson Hole, the JHCC Green Team would like to help you be a steward of our beautiful community! Please consider taking advantage of the following resources and suggestions to help you care for our natural environment and the great people of Jackson Hole.

 Bring or purchase a reusable shopping bag.

 Purchase a reusable Jackson Hole water bottle. The JH20 Project installed five water bottle filling stations conveniently located in around town including Town Square and Home Ranch Welcome Center so you can show off your personal style and stay hydrated. To learn more about the JH20 project and locate stations visit www.jh2oproject.org

 Ride the START Bus! The town shuttle is free and $6 will get you a round-trip ticket to Teton Village. To learn more about the START Bus visit www.startbus.com/

 Enjoy FREE parking and charging. If you're driving to Jackson in your hybrid or electric vehicle, look for free electric charging stations at public parking lots. To learn more visit, Yellowstone-Teton Clean Energy Coalition at www.ytcleanenergy.org/local-station-locations/

 Rent a bicycle. There are more than 42 miles of pathways in Teton County and an additional 14 miles in Grand Teton National Park. Pathways provide a scenic and sustainable option for getting from point A to point B and there are a variety of businesses that offer bike rentals. To download maps, visit Friends of Pathways at www.friendsofpathways.org/maps/

 Reduce waste. Look for public recycling receptacles provided by organizations including Teton County Solid Waste & Recycling and the Town of Jackson conveniently distributed around the community. To learn more, visit www.tetonwyo.org/recycl/topics/where-can-i-recycle-in-jackson-hole/100070/

 Enjoy an abundance of locally-grown food available at the Jackson Hole Farmers Market on Town Square and the People's Market. To learn more about local food via Slow Food of the Tetons, visit <http://tetonslowfood.org/teton-regional-food-guide/>

 Keep Your Bucks in Jackson Hole: Shopping locally offers many benefits, from reducing trips out of the valley to supporting local jobs. To learn more, visit www.keepyourbucksinjacksonhole.com

 Serve as a Volunteer! On pages 5 and 6 of this packet, you will find a list of local charitable organizations. For more charities, visit the Community Foundation of Jackson Hole.
